GLOBAL SUCCESS OF INDIA'S DIPLOMACY

Saurabh Shukla

One of the biggest successes of the government in the past 48 months has been in the diplomatic arena, from the neighbourhood to beyond, the diplomacy has worked well. Though there have been some disappointments as well given the evolving global situation, but India's global profile and its respect amongst the comity of nations has gone up many notches.

To understand it better, the following are the key areas in which the Government's policy has had its successes:

The surgical strike against Pakistan is a case in point, which was a game changer approach. India ensured it sent a strong message to Pakistan, that it will no longer act with restraint if Pakistan continues to provoke it with terrorist incidents. It was also a message to the military establishment in Pakistan that India will respond at a time of its choosing and will not hesitate to hit back. While Pakistan was shocked, the global community supported India. The fact that even Pakistan's close backers are questioning it on the issue of terrorism is a major shift. This has been brought about by its increased isolation in the global arena following India's sustained efforts during bilateral and multilateral parleys in the world.

A majority of SAARC countries decided to boycott the summit in Pakistan which led to the postponement of the summit. Not only this, the Trump administration also gave a strong warning to Pakistan on the issue of terrorism.

Besides this, from receiving the highest civilian award from Saudi Arabia to a closer strategic relationship with the Gulf countries like UAE, Oman and Qatar to engaging Israel, the diplomacy under Narendra Modi has seen an accelerated push. From cooperation on security issues and repatriation of Indian fugitives to investment by their sovereign wealth funds, India's diplomatic engagement has brought in tangible strategic outcomes.

The Road Ahead

Diplomacy has been one of the high points of Narendra Modi government's tenure from the gains at the UN, winning ICJ and a strong support from the US President Donald Trump on the issue of terrorism. India's global clout has expanded exponentially.

CAREERS IN TOURISM INDUSTRY

Prabha Negi &
Antriksha Negi Pant

India is the largest democracy in the world. It is gifted with rich cultural heritage, splendid geographical location and wide variety of flora and fauna which makes it one of the finest destinations in the world to explore. In recent years, travel and tourism has become one of the largest service industries in India. The industry is set to grow at 7.5% in 2016 exceeding the previous year's growth rate of 6.9%. According to World Travel and Tourism Council's "Travel and Tourism Economic Impact 2015" report the direct contribution of this industry to the country's GDP in 2014 was 2.2%. It is forecast that the contribution will rise significantly to 2.5% of total GDP in 2025. The improved connectivity, better lodging facility and favorable government policy on visa reforms like Visa-on-arrival have helped the Indian Tourism to thrive and flourish.

India is now one of the fastest growing outbound tourism markets in the world, second only to China. The United Nations

TOURISM careers

World Tourism Organization (UNWTO) estimates that India will account for 50 million outbound tourists by 2020. Despite the slowdown due to rupee fluctuations, the Indian outbound numbers have been growing with an average 10-12% annual growth over the last seven years. The market for travel and tourism in India is expected to grow at a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of around 7.23% during 2016-2021. A growing, consumption-driven economy, a large and increasingly affluent middle class, and the ongoing liberalization of air transportation have contributed significantly to this growth in international outbound travel. Additional interest in niche tourism sectors such as medical, wellness and adventure tourism has also contributed to this growth. Increased smartphone and internet penetration have also contributed to an increased number of online bookings.

"Athithidevo Bhava" these are not only the two words but the complete gesture of hospitality in itself for the tourists of any place.

The hospitality industry is a broad category of fields within the service industry that includes lodging, event planning, theme parks, transportation, cruise line, and additional fields within the tourism industry. The hospitality industry is a multibillion-dollar industry that depends on the availability of leisure time and disposable income. A hospitality unit such as a restaurant, hotel, or an amusement park consists of multiple groups such as facility maintenance and direct operations (servers, housekeepers, porters, kitchen workers, bartenders, management, marketing, and human resources etc.). Hospitality Industry offers unlimited opportunities. It is one of the first businesses in history. Individuals have always gone out for work or leisure purpose - to enjoy with family/friends. Currently, this is a $61 billion business. Managing and selling services to individuals without negotiating on quality is a challenging issue. Bearing in mind the challenging issue of technology and globalization, it has become imperative for the Hospitality Industry to handle operations, marketing and human resources in an effective way. Hospitality Industry is accountable for employing individuals worldwide through tourism.

Definition of Tourism:

Tourism is a social, cultural and economic phenomenon which entails the movement of people to countries or places outside their usual environment for personal or business/professional purposes. These people are called visitors (which

ENGLISH RENDERING OF PM'S ADDRESS IN 45TH EPISODE OF MANN KI BAAT, 24.06.2018

WWW.JOBRIYA.CO

Namaskar. My dear countrymen, I'm fortunate once again to be face to face with you in the 'Mann Ki Baat' programme. Just a few days ago, a historic Cricket match took place in Bengaluru. Of course you must have realized that I am referring to the test match between India and Afghanistan. It was Afghanistan's first international match and it's a matter of honour for us that this historic match for Afghanistan was played with India. Both teams performed par excellence. Besides, bowler Rashid Khan had performed exceedingly well in the IPL earlier this year. I remember Afghanistan President Shriman Ashraf Ghani's words on Twitter tagging me along "The people of Afghanistan are extremely, proud of our hero Rashid Khan. I'm also thankful to our Indian friends who created a platform for our players to showcase their skills". Rashid represents what constitutes the best of Afghanistan. He is an asset to the world of cricket. Then he quipped "No, we are not giving him to anyone!" This match will remain etched in our memories for a long time. Anyway, being the first match, it is naturally memorable, but I will cherish it for a special reason. The Indian team did something that is exemplary to the whole world. What does a winning team do while receiving the trophy? The Indian team, while receiving the trophy, warmly invited the Afghanistan team which had played its first international match to pose together for photographs. This incident exemplifies the very spirit of sportsmanship. Sports is an excellent route to unite society and to showcase the talents and skills of our youth. I felicitate both the teams of India and Afghanistan. I sincerely hope, that in future too, we'll play with each other with the best sportsman spirit and shine together.

My dear countrymen, this 21st of June, the fourth Yoga Day presented the rarest of sights. The whole world appeared as one entity. In the European Parliament in Brussels, at the UN headquarters in New York, on Japanese naval warships, there were sights of people performing yoga. Saudi Arabia witnessed its first, historic yoga programme and I am told many aasans were demonstrated by women. On the snow capped mountain peaks of Ladakh, Indian and Chinese soldiers performed yoga in unison. Yoga breaks all barriers of borders and unites people. Zealous citizens of hundreds of lands overlooked divisions of caste, religion, region, colour and gender to transform this occasion into a massive festival. If people from the entire world ardently participated in programmes on Yoga Day, why should India not feel elated many times over?

It is a matter of great pride for a hundred and twenty five crore people to witness members of our armed forces perform yoga on land, sea and sky. A section of our brave soldiers did yoga in submarines; some of them chose the snow clad mountainous terrain of Siachen for the same. Our air warriors astounded everyone by performing yogasans in mid sky, some 15 thousand feet above the earth. Spectacular was the fact that they achieved this feat not inside an airplane but while floating mid air. Schools, colleges, offices, parks, skyscrapers, playgrounds came alive-as yoga venues. Heartwarming was an instance in Ahmedabad. Around 750 divyang brothers and sisters assembled at one place to do yoga and thus created a world record. Yoga has broken barriers of caste, creed and geography to unite the people of the entire world, which is the very essence of the real sentiment innate to Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam that we have followed in letter and spirit over centuries. Our Rishis, sages and saints have laid emphasis on certain tenets; yoga has proved them in a concrete manner. I believe that the concept of wellness today is bringing about a revolution. I hope the campaign of wellness through yoga will gain further momentum. More and more people will come forward to make it a part of their lives.

My dear countrymen, many of you have urged me on My gov and Narendra Modi app to mention Doctor's Day, the 1st of July. You are absolutely right. We think of doctors only during times of distress. But this is a day when the nation celebrates the achievements of our doctors and expresses gratitude for their spirit of service and commitment towards society. We are a people who, by nature, revere the Mother as the equivalent of God since she is the source of our very existence, our life. On the other hand, there are times when it is the Doctor who gives us re-birth. The role of a doctor is not limited to mere treatment of ailments. Often a doctor plays the role of a family friend, a lifestyle guide. They not only cure but also heal. Today, doctors possess not just medical expertise; they have a vast experience on the co- relation between general lifestyle trends and their effect on our health. Indian doctors have carved a niche for themselves in the entire world through their capabilities and skills. Our doctors have gained recognition for their expertise in the medical field, hardworking attitude and the ability to solve complex medical problems. Through Mann Ki Baat I extend my warmest felicitations on behalf of the countrymen to all our doctors, ahead of Doctor's Day on the 1st of July.

My dear countrymen, as a people, we are truly blessed to be born in this land, bhoomi of Bharat, India. India has had a rich historical canvas. Every single month, every single day in fact, is a marker of one historical event or the other. Every place in India is replete with signposts of heritage. Every place has been blessed with a saint, a luminary or a great, famous personality who has contributed through his sagacity.

Thank you very much for your phone call. It is correct that I am reaching Maghar on the 28th. I am sure you know about Kabirwad in Gujarat when I used to work there, I had organized a National session of people belonging to the tradition of saint Kabir. Once again I have been blessed with the opportunity to visit this Samadhi sthal, this shrine. You must be aware that in eastern Uttar Pradesh, there is a place called Maghar. It is here that Sant Kabir Das ji attained Samadhi. Do you know why Kabir Das ji chose to go to Maghar? In those days it was believed that death in Maghar was a roadblock in one's pathway to heaven. On the contrary, breathing one's last in Kaashi was a guarantee for entry into heaven. Maghar was considered unholy but Sant Kabirdas never subscribed to that view. He toiled relentlessly to quell many such superstitions and evil social customs of his times. That is why he went to Maghar and chose to attain Samadhi there. Sant Kabir Das ji, through his verses 'Saakhis' and 'Dohas' stressed upon the virtues of social equality, peace and brotherhood. These were his ideals. We can feel the essence of these ideals in his compositions. They are relevant & inspiring even in modern times. I quote a doha
कबीर सोई पीर है, जो जाने पर पीर।
जो पर पीर न जानही, सो का पीर में पीर।।

The true saint is the one who recognizes & understands the sufferings of others. Those who do not feel the pain of others are insensitive, uncompassionate. Kabir Das ji laid great emphasis on social cohesion. He was a thinker way ahead of his times. In those days, when the whole world was undergoing strife and degradation of moral values, he spread the message of peace and harmony. He worked towards uniting the populace, bridging their differences.

“जग में बैरी कोई नहीं, जो मन शीतल होय
यह आपा तो डालदे, दया करे सब कोय”

There will be no enmity in the world if the inner being is at peace.

Compassion should be the universal way of life.

In another doha, Kabir has written.

जहां दया तहं धर्म, जहां लोभ तहं पाप
जहां क्रोध तहं काल है, जहां क्षमा तहं आप

Compassion leads to righteousness,
Greed leads to sin.

Anger is sure to devour you,
Forgiveness is a great virtue.

He said

जाति न पूछो साधु की, पूछ लीजिये
ज्ञान

Never ask a saint his caste or creed;

Ask him about his repository of knowledge.

He appealed to the people to rise above divisions of religion & caste and make knowledge and wisdom the sole basis of recognition. His principles are relevant even after several centuries have gone by. Since we are referring to Sant Kabir Das ji, I am reminded of a doha couplet in which he says,

“गुरु गोविन्द दोऊ खड़े काके लागू पांय।
बताय।।”

Such is the exalted status accorded to the guru, the teacher. And one such guru is Jagatguru, Guru Nanak Dev. He showed the righteous path of life to millions, inspiring them for centuries. Guru Nanak Dev's teachings endeavoured to eradicate caste based discrimination prevalent in society. He perceived humankind as one and urged everyone to embrace humanity.

Guru Nanak Devji said that the service to the poor and the needy is service to God. Wherever he went, he took many initiatives for the welfare of the society. The establishment of a kitchen free of social discrimination where a person of any caste, sect, religion or community could eat or what we know as the langar system was initiated solely by Guru Nanak Dev Ji. The 550th Prakash Parv of Guru Nanak Dev Ji will be celebrated in 2019. I want all of us to join this great festival with enthusiasm and fervour. To celebrate this festival in the entire Indian society and around the world I also urge you to suggest new ideas, new concepts, and innovations on which we can ponder and make preparations and thus we can also celebrate the Prakash parv as Prerna Parv with great pride.

My dear countrymen! The history of India's struggle for independence is very long, very vast and is filled with countless sacrifices. There is another chapter of history associated with Punjab. In the year 2019, 100 years of the horrific incident of Jallianwala Bagh will come to a full circle, it was an incident that embarrassed the entire humanity. Who can forget that dark day of April 13, 1919, when abusing all limits of power, crossing all the boundaries of cruelty; the guiltless, unarmed and innocent people were fired upon. How can we remember the completion of 100 years of this horrific event is something we can all give a thought to, but we must also remember the everlasting message that this incident has imparted that is - violence and cruelty can never solve any problem. It is peace and non-violence, renunciation and martyrdom that are triumphant in the end!

My dear countrymen! Mr. Raman Kumar of Rohini, Delhi, has written on 'Narendra Modi Mobile App' that on coming July 6 happens to be Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee's birthday and he wants me to talk about Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee in this episode of Mann Ki Baat. Thank you very much, Raman ji. It feels great to see your interest in India's history. You know, June 23, was the death anniversary of Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee. Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee was associated with many fields, but the areas which were closest to his heart were education, administration and Parliamentary Affairs, very few people would know that he was the youngest Vice-Chancellor of the University of Calcutta at merely 33 years of age.

Very few people would also be knowing that in 1937, on the invitation of Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee, Gurudev Rabindranath Tagore addressed the convocation in Kolkata University in Bangla. This was the first time under British rule that the convocation in Kolkata University had been addressed to in Bangla. From 1947 to 1950, Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee was the first Industries Minister of India and, in a sense, he laid a strong foundation for India's industrial development, he had prepared a solid base. It was he who had prepared a stout platform. The first industrial policy of Independent India, which came in 1948, was stamped with his ideas and vision. Dr. Mukherjee's dream was for India to be industrially self-reliant, competent and prosperous in every sphere.

He had wanted India to develop heavy industries and also pay full attention to MSME, handloom, textiles and cottage industry. For the proper development of cottage and small industries with finance availability and organizational setup-All India Handicrafts Board, All India Handloom Board and Khadi & Village Industries Board were established between 1948 and 1950. There was also a special emphasis by Dr. Mukherjee on indigenization of India's defence production, in the establishment of four most successful mega projects-Chittaranjan locomotive works factory, Hindustan aircraft factory, Sindri fertilizer factory and Damodar Valley Corporation and other river valley projects, Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee contributed significantly. He was very passionate about the development of West Bengal. It was the result of his understanding, prudence and activism that a part of Bengal could be saved and it is still a part of India.

For Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee, the most important thing was the integrity and unity of India - and for this, at the young age of 52, he also sacrificed his life. Come! Let us forever remember Dr. Shyama Prasad Mukherjee's message of unity imbued with the spirit of goodwill and brotherhood and remain proactive with all our might for the progress of India.

My dear countrymen! During the past few weeks, I had the opportunity to interact with the beneficiaries of different schemes of government through video call. I got an opportunity to know beyond the confines of the files the changes which are being ushered in the lives of people directly from them. People spoke about their determination, their happiness and their achievements. I believe that this was not a mere governmental programme for me, but it was a unique learning experience and during this time the joy of seeing people's faces lit with happiness, can be the moment of greatest satisfaction in anyone's life? When I would listen to the stories of a common man, his guileless words narrating his experience would touch my heart.

In far-distant villages, daughters are providing services ranging from pension to issuance of passport to senior citizens through the aegis of common service centers. A sister from Chhattisgarh collects custard apple and does business by making its ice cream. Like Anjan Prakash in Jharkhand, many lakhs of young besides running the Yuva - Jan Aushdhi kendras in the country are providing affordable medicines in the nearby villages. At the same time a young man from West Bengal desperately seeking a job two to three years ago is now a successful entrepreneur ; And not only this he is providing employment to ten to fifteen people. Whereas young school students from Tamil Nadu, Punjab, Goa are working on an important topic like waste management in their school's tinkering lab. I just do not know how many such stories were shared with me, there wasn't a single corner of the country where people did not have a success story of theirs to share with me. I am glad that in this entire programme I witnessed the accomplishments of the common man more than the achievements of the government, of the country's power, the power of New India's dreams, the power of the resolve of the new India - this is what I experienced!

There are certain people in society, who find no solace till they do not express their frustrated views, their depressed views and seek ways to divide rather than unite. In such an environment, when the common man comes to you talking about emerging hope, new zeal and events that have taken place in his life, it is not to the government's credit. An incident regarding a small girl from a remote village too can inspire the hundred and twenty five crore people. With the help of technology, through the video bridge even a single moment spent with the beneficiaries was very enjoyable, very motivational and provided satisfaction to work more. There is a renewed joy in dedicating your life for the upliftment, and you're left with renewed fervour and inspiration.

I am very grateful to the countrymen. 40-50 lakh people participated in this video bridge program and imparted me with a new strength. I again want to express my gratitude to you all.

My dear countrymen! I always feel that if we look around us, somewhere or something good always happens. Many good people out there are involved in beneficial work. We can also smell the fragrance of righteousness. In the past, one thing came to my attention and it happens to be a very unique combination. On one hand, where we have professionals and engineers, on the other hand, there exist farmers tilling the fields, our brethren-sisters associated with agriculture. Now you must be wondering that these are two completely different occupations - what is the relation between these professions? But there exists a link, in Bangalore, corporate professionals and IT engineers came along and created an effortless 'Samridhi trust' with which they have doubled the income of the farmers by successful activation of this trust. This trust remained associated with farmers, drew plans and made successful efforts to increase the income of farmers. The training to inculcate organic farming while teaching latest agricultural techniques and how to grow more crops along with a single cash crop in the fields was imparted through the professional, engineers and technocrats associated with this trust started giving training to the farmers. The farmers who initially used to depend on the same single cash crop in their fields and that too the yield was also not good were getting lesser profits, today are not only growing vegetables but also marketing their own vegetables and getting good prices through the trust. Farmers producing grains have also become associated with this trust.

On one hand, farmers have a major role in the entire chain from cultivation till the marketing of crops, whereas on the other hand, to make certain the farmers' participation in reaping profits is an attempt to guarantee their right. A separate seed bank has been created to make good agricultural strains available for reaping a bumper harvest. Women have also been added in this activity and they supervise the work of this seed-bank. I congratulate these young people for this innovative experiment and I am happy that these young professionals, technocrats and others associated with the world of engineering, got out of their comfort zone to make a connect with the farmer, the village, fields and barns.

Friends! Your youth-power is really inspiring for any young person. Many other young people of our country will definitely visit your website and look closely at your work and will also be inspired by how they can be of use in different areas of the social milieu in their area. I once again felicitate the youth of my country for their innovative experiments, some of which I might have got to know, some might have escaped me, some people might or may not be aware of but nonetheless I wish countless people involved in doing beneficial work ,very good luck from my side.

My dear countrymen! It's been an year when GST was implemented. 'One Nation, One Tax' was the dream of the people of this country that has become a reality today. If I've to give credit to anyone for successful implementation of 'One Nation One Tax reform', then I credit the states of our nation. GST is a great example of Cooperative federalism, where all the states decided to take a unanimous decision in the interest of the nation, and then such a huge tax reform could be implemented in the country. So far, there have been 27 meetings of the GST Council and we can all feel proud that people from different political ideologies have been involved in these meetings. These meetings involve representatives of different states; states which have different priorities, but in spite of all this, all the decisions that have been taken in the GST Council so far have been taken with absolute consensus. Before the onset of GST scheme, there were 17 different types of taxes prevailing in the country, but now only one tax is applicable in the entire country. GST is not only the victory of integrity but it is also a celebration of honesty. Earlier, in the case of taxation and allied affairs in the country, there were rampant complaints of Inspector Raj.

In the GST scheme, information technology has replaced the inspector. Everything from return to refund is done through online information technology. The check post has become extinct after the arrival of the GST scheme and the movement of goods has become faster, which not only saves time but is also accruing benefits in the area of logistics. GST is probably the biggest tax reform in the world. The implementation of such a huge tax reform in India was successful only because the people of the country adopted it and through the power of the masses, fuelled the success of the GST scheme. It is generally believed that such a big tax reform, in a huge country like ours with such a large population takes 5 to 7 years for effective adoption. However within a year, the enthusiasm of the honest people of this nation, the celebration of integrity in the country and the participation of people resulted in this new tax system managing to create a space for itself, has achieved stability and according to the need, it will bring reform through its in built arrangement. This is a huge success in itself which 125 crore Indians have earned for themselves.

My dear countrymen! Once again, while concluding this episode, I wait most eagerly for the next chapter of 'Mann Ki Baat', of meeting you and talking to you. I wish you many felicitations.

Thank you very much. -PIB may be either tourists or excursionists; residents or non-residents) and tourism has to do with their activities, some of which imply tourism expenditure (United Nations World Tourism Organization, 2008).

In simple words, travel and tourism are basically the opposite sides of the same coin, as travel gives us lifelong memories filled with adventure, on the other hand, tourism gives us the platform to fulfil our career goals in the field of Hospitality industry.

Travel and tourism industry in India

Indian Tourism is classified into four main categories North Indian, East Indian, West Indian and South Indian Tourism. Different parts of the country offer different experiences ranging from scenic beauty to ancient cultural heritage. All these mesmerize foreign visitors and motivate them to explore more of India. Travel and Tourism apart from generating revenue for the country also provide direct and indirect employment opportunity to millions of people. In recent years, data indicates the number of domestic tourist traffic has increased significantly and some of the reasons behind this is better road connectivity, evolving lifestyle of people, higher disposable income of the middle class segment, etc. Similarly for foreigners, India has become an attractive and affordable holiday destination. Development of key states like Rajasthan and Kerala as most popular holiday destinations coupled with successful implementation of "Incredible India" campaign has provided further impetus to the sector.

Scope of Tourism Industry in India

Tourism in India is economically important and is growing rapidly. The World Travel & Tourism Council calculated that tourism generated Rs. 15.24 lakh crore (US$230 billion) or 9.4% of the nation's GDP in 2017 and supported 41.622 million jobs, 8% of its total employment. The sector is predicted to grow at an annual rate of 6.9% to Rs. 32.05 lakh crore (US$480 billion) by 2028 (9.9% of GDP). In October 2015, India's medical tourism sector was estimated to be worth US$3 billion. It is projected to grow to $7-8 billion by 2020. In 2014, 184, 298 foreign patients travelled to India to seek medical treatment.

Common concepts taught in travel and tourism coursework are:

activities. For adventure tourism in India, tourists prefer to go for trekking to places like Ladakh, Sikkim, and Himalaya. Himachal Pradesh and Jammu and Kashmir are popular for the skiing facilities they offer. Whitewater rafting is also catching on in India and tourists flock to places such as Uttarakhand, Assam, and Arunachal Pradesh for this adrenalin-packed activity.

Wildlife tourism

India has a rich forest cover which has some beautiful and exotic species of wildlife - some of which are even endangered and very rare. This has boosted wildlife tourism in India. The places where a foreign tourist can go for wildlife tourism in India are Sariska Wildlife Sanctuary, Keoladeo Ghana National Park, and Corbett National Park.

The city of Chennai attracts around 45% of medical tourists from foreign countries.

Pilgrimage tourism

India is famous for its temples and that is the reason that among the different kinds of tourism in India, pilgrimage tourism is increasing most rapidly. The various places for tourists to visit in India for pilgrimage are Vaishno Devi, Golden temple, Char Dham, and Mathura Vrindavan.

into US putting Pakistan on notice. The Defence partnership is booming. The two countries need to resolve the trade and immigration issues and get this relationship into a delivery mode. On the boundary issue post the Doklam Standoff with China, there have been disappointments but India has dealt with them firmly, only elevating India's status in the global power arena. In the changed global order, the power profile of the country also comes from a combination of its economic profile, besides the ability of the leader of the country to have many friends across the globe. One of the key successes of the government has been to have a string of close friends across the globe which have helped India assume a higher diplomatic profile globally.

Robust Act East Policy

Another key achievement of the Modi government has been to successfully transform India's look East policy to a robust Act East policy which has helped build India's global profile. The Prime Minister's recent trip to Indonesia, his participation in the Shangrila Dialogue, a dialogue with the Singapore leadership and a stopover in Malaysia were all aimed at reinforcing India's continued commitment to relationship with these countries. Earlier, the fact that all ASEAN leaders were invited as a Chief Guests at the Republic Day parade was a manifestation of that special partnership. This partnership is based on three essential pillars, first is economic cooperation, where India and these countries reap the benefits of a dynamic trade relationship, second is strategic where they cooperate on defence, ensuring sea lanes of communication, cooperate against sea piracy and on counter terrorism. The third pillar is cultural links where India and these countries cooperate on their cultural and traditional links while forging a fresh connect through Indian diaspora. It also serves another larger strategic objective in ensuring that India's dominant role in Asia as a preserver of peace and stability is reinforced.

A strong alliance in Asia, has also helped a new global coinage of Indo-Pacific reaffirming India as a dominant player in the region. It has also proved an effective counter weight to any hegemonic designs in the Asian region.

Expanding India's humanitarian Diplomacy

In the age of social media and increasing awareness about global issues India must ensure that Indians abroad and those who engage with India, travelers and visa seekers are welcomed with a humanitarian angle. Indian missions and the Indian foreign office must create awareness around it, and Indian missions and Envoys must become the first outpost of a welcome that tourists will await in India when they come to the country.

The other part of the humanitarian diplomacy is India's outreach to countries in need, so far we have done it in India's strategic neighbourhood but we must extend beyond this. For our global aspirations we must be seen as a country which stand with the have nots of the world. We must engage and spread our global goodwill diplomacy.

Climb the Chinese Wall

After the resolution of the Doklam standoff and the Wuhan summit the understanding between the two countries has increased. Both countries have economic stakes in a better relationship with each other. They have the potential of cooperating on global environment and sustainability issues and on multilateral forums.

A softer touch for the neighbourhood

From Nepal, Sri Lanka to Afghanistan and Bangladesh India needs to work on a policy of soft engagement working on cultural similarities and creating goodwill amongst these countries. A region specific public diplomacy initiative needs to be carried out directed at the young people in these countries to create a goodwill for India.

Engaging Russia and Europe

Russia is an old friend of India and we should not forget old friends, it is crucial for India in Afghanistan and is an important energy and defence partner. It will require a sustained effort with multiple options including military and diplomatic to ensure that costs are inflicted on Pakistan for its support to terrorism.

Human-centric Diplomacy

For any country a successful diplomatic outreach is also measured if its citizens feel reassured that their government will save them if they are in harm's way especially if they are abroad. Global powers like the US were considered as a role model for the pressure they would bring about to get their citizens safely back home. This has been a major shift for India, as the Government has been more receptive and the Indian Missions have ensured that thousands of Indians were brought back home through the Government's extended outreach through diplomatic intervention. What has changed now is that the social media has become an important medium in ensuring that the citizens reach out to the Government when in distress and the Indian missions have been directed to ensure that help reaches them swiftly. While India has had successful evacuation missions in the past as well, but what has been a big change is the swiftness and the other is to ensure that an individual citizen also has a voice by which they can reach out to their government when they are in crisis.

Successful Power Diplomacy

Developing personal chemistry has been a key measure of success for the Narendra Modi government, and the Prime Minister deserves credit for his attempts to create a good rapport with World leaders. From the US President Donald Trump, to Vladimir Putin of Russia, Xi Jinping of China, Shinzo Abe of Japan and Emanuel Macron of France the personal touch diplomacy of the Indian PM has yielded successful results. In some cases the success has been mixed, especially when it comes to the recent Trade and Immigration related differences with Russia for deeper economic and defence cooperation. While EU and India will have their divergence of views, we should continue to work and get innovation, skill development and aerospace into the gamut of our relationship with our leading partnerships in Europe and UK.

Diplomacy for a new India

As India's global canvas grows it has to adapt its diplomacy to newer tools of modern day statecraft by factoring to a social media and internet age. Indian diplomacy now needs to get in more domain experts, create a strategy using digital and social media to engage with young people as diplomacy and foreign policy are also about creating public diplomacy perceptions.

Travel and Tourism industry : Road ahead

When we think of a passion and career options, Travel and Tourism is one of the best choice ever, as it provides the way of livelihood as well as adventurous life throughout. Fill your life with experiences, not things, have stories to tell, not stuff to show off. We can always make more money. But we can't always make more memories. Sampling a little bit of everything is the real purpose of travelling. In the end we only regret the choices we didn't make.
